

Table of Contents

1. Introduction – Why Teens Should Learn to Earn Online
2. Chapter 1: The Digital Lemonade Stand – Freelancing
3. Chapter 2: The Classroom from Your Bedroom – Online Tutoring
4. Chapter 3: Pixels and Profits – Graphic Design for Beginners
5. Chapter 4: Typing for Dollars – Transcription and Data Entry
6. Chapter 5: From Likes to Livelihood – Social Media Management
7. Chapter 6: Words That Work – Blogging and Content Writing
8. Chapter 7: Video Vibes – Starting a YouTube Channel
9. Chapter 8: Clicks to Cash – Affiliate Marketing for Teens
10. Chapter 9: Digital Mini-Shops – Selling Printables and Art Online
11. Chapter 10: Mindset Magic – Staying Motivated and Avoiding Burnout

★ Introduction – Why Teens Should Learn to Earn Online

A Story:

Riya was 15 when her father lost his job. Suddenly, even asking for money to recharge her phone felt heavy. But she didn't sulk—she searched. One night, sitting under a flickering bulb, she found a website that offered small writing gigs. She gave it a try. Her English wasn't perfect, but her ideas were fresh. A week later, she earned her first ₹500. It wasn't much, but it was hers. That one win changed everything.

Now at 17, Riya earns enough to pay for her schoolbooks, her phone, and even saves for college. All online. All from her home. Just her and her laptop.

You can be Riya.

Why This Book?

Because no one tells teens how powerful the internet is. You're taught algebra and Shakespeare, but not how to earn money ethically from your room. You scroll, you like, you post—but what if you could turn all that screen time into skill time?

This book is your map. Not full of vague dreams, but clear paths, stories, tips, and steps.

What You'll Find in This Book:

- Real stories that make you feel the journey.
- Motivation that sticks with you.
- Online-only jobs—no delivering pizza or working in shops.
- Step-by-step guides to start right now.
- Lessons that go beyond money: confidence, growth, independence.

A Personal Note:

You don't have to wait to “grow up” to be valuable. You already are. The world just hasn't told you that clearly enough.

Let this book show you how.

Chapter 1: The Digital Lemonade Stand - Freelancing

Aarav, 16, loved editing videos for fun. One day, his cousin suggested he try offering his skills online. Nervous but curious, Aarav created a free profile on Fiverr. It took a few weeks, but then—ding!—his first order came in: ₹800 for a simple edit. He stayed up all night polishing that video, sent it in with shaking hands—and the client loved it. Today, Aarav earns ₹10,000–₹15,000 a month editing part-time. All while managing school, cricket, and friendships. It started with one step: listing his skill.

💡 What is Freelancing?

Freelancing means offering a skill or service online, directly to people who need it. You don't need a degree—just skill, honesty, and reliability.

Popular freelance skills for teens:

- Video editing
- Graphic design
- Voiceovers
- Writing and proofreading
- Coding (websites, apps)
- Translating (if you know more than one language)

🌟 Motivation Boost:

You don't need to be an expert. You just need to be better than someone who can't do it at all.

🧠 What You Learn from Freelancing:

- How to talk to clients professionally
- How to handle money
- How to take feedback and improve
- Time management
- Real-world confidence

📖 Step-by-Step Guide to Start Freelancing:

1. Pick a Skill:
2. Choose what you're good at or enjoy learning. Even simple things like making Canva posts or basic video editing count.
3. Build a Simple Portfolio:
4. Make 2–3 samples of your work to show what you can do. No real clients needed yet—make your own demo work.
5. Create a Profile:
6. Sign up on websites like:
 - Fiverr.com
 - Freelancer.com
 - Upwork.com (Upwork may need more details; start with Fiverr if you're a beginner.)
7. Write a Friendly Gig Description:
8. Example:
9. "Hi! I'm a teen video editor who can make your clips clean, fun, and sharp. Fast delivery and honest work!"
10. Start Small:
11. Offer your service at a low rate first to get reviews. Once you build reputation, raise your prices slowly.
12. Stay Online Often:
13. Many clients message people who are "online now." Keep the app open when you're free.
14. Be Kind, Be Fast, Be Reliable:
15. This is the real secret to repeat clients and 5–star reviews.

✅ Pro Tips:

- Use Canva for designing logos, posters, or Instagram posts.
- Offer short services first—like “I will edit a 30-second clip.”
- Always say thank you to clients, even if they don’t hire you.
- Don’t overpromise. Just be honest and try your best.

Chapter 2: The Classroom from Your Bedroom – Online Tutoring

story:

Mehul, 17, was always good at math. His younger neighbor struggled with fractions, so Mehul helped him out a few times. The boy's mother offered him ₹300 per hour for regular sessions. That lit a spark.

Soon, Mehul joined an app called Superprof, created a profile, and started offering tutoring in Math and Science for middle school students.

Within 2 months, he was teaching 4 kids and earning around ₹5000 a month—just by sharing what he already knew.

He didn't need to be a teacher. He just needed to explain clearly.

💡 What is Online Tutoring?

It's teaching someone a subject through video calls or recorded lessons. You don't need to be an expert—just a few steps ahead of the student you're helping.

Popular subjects teens can tutor:

- Math
- Science
- English
- Basic coding
- Spoken English for younger kids
- Even helping with homework

🌟 Motivation Boost:

You already know things someone else is struggling with. Your knowledge can be someone else's ladder.

🧠 What You Learn from Tutoring:

- Clear communication
- Patience
- Confidence
- Responsibility
- Improved subject knowledge (you learn better by teaching)

📖 Step-by-Step Guide to Start Online Tutoring:

1. Pick Your Best Subject(s):
2. Start with the one you're strongest at or enjoy the most.
3. Prepare a Demo Class:
4. Make a 5–10 minute sample video explaining a topic like fractions or tenses. Use a phone camera or screen recording.
5. Sign Up on Tutoring Platforms:
 - Superprof.co.in
 - Teachoo.com (for more experienced tutors)
 - Local Facebook/WhatsApp groups (with parent permission if needed)
6. Make Your Profile Student-Friendly:
7. Example:
8. "Hi! I'm a class 11 student who loves simplifying math. I've helped many kids in my society. Let's make learning fun and easy!"
9. Start With Kids Younger Than You:
10. You don't have to teach people your age. Even 3–4 years younger makes you more experienced.
11. Use Simple Tools:
 - Zoom / Google Meet for live classes
 - Canva or PowerPoint for teaching slides
 - YouTube (optional) to upload tutorials
12. Keep Rates Low in the Beginning:
13. Start at ₹200–300/hour. As reviews grow, increase slowly.

✅ Pro Tips:

- Be consistent—set clear timings and never miss a session.
- Keep the energy high—smile, encourage, and explain with examples.
- Prepare notes and diagrams in advance.
- Offer a free first class to attract students.
- Ask for feedback from parents/students.

Chapter 3: Pixels and Profits – Graphic Design for Beginners

Story:

Sana, 16, loved playing with colors and layouts. She used Canva to make fun Instagram posts and birthday cards for her friends. One day, her friend's small business needed a logo. She gave it a try and was paid ₹700.

That changed everything.

She began offering simple design services on Instagram and Fiverr—logos, social media posts, and posters. Within six months, she had earned ₹12,000, all from designs made on her phone and laptop.

💡 What is Graphic Design?

It's creating visuals that communicate messages—like posters, logos, banners, or Instagram posts.

You don't need expensive software. Tools like Canva make design simple and accessible.

Popular design tasks for teens:

- Instagram posts
- YouTube thumbnails
- Logos for small businesses
- Posters for school events or online contests
- Social media highlight covers

✦ Motivation Boost:

You don't need to be an artist to be a designer. You just need to understand how to arrange ideas beautifully.

🧠 What You Learn from Graphic Design:

- Visual thinking
- Creativity with structure
- Client communication
- Time and feedback management
- Aesthetics and presentation

📖 Step-by-Step Guide to Start Graphic Designing:

1. Learn the Basics with Canva:
 - Visit www.canva.com
 - Explore free templates, fonts, and layouts.
 - Try designing a poster or a YouTube thumbnail.
2. Make a Portfolio:
3. Create 5–6 sample works:
 - A logo for a fake brand
 - An Instagram post for an online shop
 - A flyer for a school event
 - Save them as images to show clients.
4. Create a Design Page:
 - Make an Instagram account to share your work.
 - Name example: @designsbysana or @teen.creative.studio
 - Use Canva to design your own logo and bio.
5. Offer Services on Platforms:
 - Fiverr
 - PeoplePerHour
 - Instagram DMs to small brands (politely offer help)
6. Start with Affordable Rates:
7. Charge ₹200–₹300 for a logo or a post in the beginning. Increase with experience.
8. Collect Feedback and Testimonials:
9. Ask happy clients to give you a short review you can post on your page.

✅ Pro Tips:

- Use color palettes from coolers.co to stay trendy.
- Watch 1 YouTube video per week about design tips.
- Always save your designs in high resolution.
- Don't copy others—take inspiration, but make it your own.
- Try using mockups (free templates showing your design on products) to make your portfolio look real.

Chapter 4: Typing for Dollars – Transcription and Data Entry

Story:

Kabir, 15, didn't think he had any skills—he wasn't a designer, not great at speaking, and didn't know how to code. But he could type fast. While searching online for “easy jobs for teens,” he found a transcription site where people get paid to type what they hear.

His first job was to transcribe a 5-minute audio into text. It paid ₹300. It felt small—but it was his first income. He kept going, got faster, and now earns ₹4000–₹6000 a month, just typing from his room.

What is Transcription and Data Entry?

- Transcription: Listening to audio or video and typing it out clearly.
 - Data Entry: Copying, organizing, or formatting data into a system (like spreadsheets).
- You don't need special skills—just accuracy, focus, and good typing speed.

✨ Motivation Boost:

Even basic skills can be valuable in the online world. Simple work, done well, builds big trust.

🧠 What You Learn from Transcription/Data Entry:

- Typing speed improvement
- Listening and concentration
- Accuracy and detail-checking
- Time discipline
- Basic Excel/Google Sheet use

📖 Step-by-Step Guide to Start:

1. Check Your Typing Speed:
2. Go to 10fastfingers.com or typingtest.com.
3. Aim for at least 40 words per minute (WPM).
4. Practice Transcribing:
 - Use YouTube videos with subtitles turned off.
 - Try to type what you hear.
 - Use free tools like oTranscribe.com to practice.
5. Create an Account on Transcription Sites:
 - GoTranscript.com
 - Rev.com (some regions may not support)
 - Scribie.com
 - (Note: You'll need to pass a short test.)
6. Start with Small Gigs:
7. Choose short, easy files to build confidence and rating.
8. Try Data Entry Gigs:
 - Use Freelancer.com and Fiverr.com
 - Offer simple services like:
 - "I will enter 100 rows of data into Excel accurately"
9. Build a Template Portfolio:
10. Create a sample Excel sheet or a transcription demo to show clients.

✅ Pro Tips:

- Wear headphones to hear audio clearly.
- Use Grammarly or Google Docs to check your spelling.
- Take breaks—accuracy is more important than speed.
- Always read the guidelines given before starting a task.
- Keep improving your English listening with podcasts or YouTube.

Chapter 5: From Likes to Livelihood – Social Media Management

Story:

Jiya, 16, was obsessed with Instagram trends. She knew how to write catchy captions, post at the right time, and pick the right hashtags. Her aunt ran a small baking business and was struggling with her Instagram. Jiya offered to help—for free at first.

In one month, her aunt's page went from 200 followers to 800. Orders increased. Her aunt paid her ₹1000 to continue, and soon, Jiya was managing pages for two more local businesses. She turned her scrolling habit into a smart skill.

💡 What is Social Media Management?

It means handling someone's Instagram, Facebook, or other platforms—posting content, replying to comments, and growing their online presence.

You don't need to be a marketing expert. You just need to understand how people interact online.

🌟 Motivation Boost:

You already know how social media works. You can use it instead of just consuming it.

🧠 What You Learn from Social Media Management:

- Online communication skills
- Content planning and branding
- Writing short, powerful messages
- Marketing basics
- Client handling and scheduling

📖 Step-by-Step Guide to Start:

1. Understand the Platforms:
2. Start with Instagram and Facebook.
3. Learn what posts do well—reels, carousels, stories, etc.
4. Create Sample Work:
5. Use Canva to design:
 - 3 sample posts
 - 1 content calendar (post schedule for a week)
 - 3 story ideas
 - Do this for a fake business like “Riya’s Bookstore” or “Momo World”.
6. Offer Free Help First (1 Client):
7. Ask a friend or local business if you can manage their page for free for 2 weeks. Show results.
8. Track and Share Growth:
9. Note down how many new followers or likes they got. Take screenshots.
10. Create a Service Profile:

Continue guide

1. Instagram or Fiverr bio example:
 2. “I help small businesses grow on Instagram by posting cool, regular content. Teen social media manager with results!”
 3. Charge Small Fees to Start:
 4. ₹500–₹1000/month for 3 posts a week is fair for beginners.
 5. Use Tools to Help You:
 - Canva (design)
 - Facebook Creator Studio (schedule posts)
 - Hashtag generators online
- ✅ Pro Tips:
- Know your audience—posts for a bakery won’t be the same as for a gym.
 - Be polite and professional in DMs and comments.
 - Post at the right time (evenings usually work best).
 - Use 5–10 relevant hashtags per post.
 - Focus on quality over quantity.

Chapter 6: Words That Work – Blogging and Content Writing

Story:

Rohan, 17, always had a way with words. He wrote poems and short stories for fun. One day, he saw a YouTube video titled “Get paid to write articles online.” Curious, he clicked.

He started writing blog posts on Medium.com, then applied for freelance gigs as a content writer.

His first job paid ₹600 for a 500-word article about smartphones. Today, Rohan writes 3–4 articles a week for websites and earns over ₹8000 a month—just using his creativity and a keyboard.

💡 What is Content Writing?

It’s writing articles, blog posts, product descriptions, or social media captions for websites and businesses.

You don’t need to be a novelist—just clear, helpful, and interesting.

🌟 Motivation Boost:

If you can explain something well in writing, the internet will pay you to do it.

🧠 What You Learn from Content Writing:

- How to write clearly and with purpose
- Research skills
- Grammar and tone improvement
- Writing for different audiences
- Time and deadline management

📖 Step-by-Step Guide to Start:

1. Pick Topics You Enjoy:
2. Choose 3–5 topics you like (e.g., gaming, tech, skincare, motivation, or mental health).
3. Write Sample Articles:
 - 300–500 words each
 - Use free tools like Grammarly to check grammar
 - Save them as Google Docs or PDFs
4. Post on Blogging Platforms (Optional but Helpful):
 - Medium.com
 - Blogger.com
 - This builds your writing profile.
5. Sign Up for Freelance Platforms:
 - Fiverr: “I will write blog posts or articles on any topic”
 - Internshala: Look for “Content Writing” internships (paid or unpaid with certificates)
 - Freelancer.com
6. Apply for Small Gigs First:
7. Don’t worry about low pay in the beginning. Build a good profile and reviews.
8. Keep Learning and Improving:
9. Watch writing tip videos on YouTube. Read other blogs. Practice daily.

✅ Pro Tips:

- Use Grammarly or Hemingway App to improve clarity.
- Avoid copying—plagiarism can ruin your online career.
- Stick to simple language and short paragraphs.
- Always read the client's instructions carefully.
- Start a personal blog to show your growth.

Chapter 7: Speak and Earn – YouTube and Voice Work

Anaya, 15, loved talking. She would imitate cartoon voices and explain funny stories to her friends. One day, her brother suggested she record her voice over a motivational video.

She did.

That video got 5000 views on YouTube in a week.

Soon, she began uploading weekly videos—explaining self-help books, sharing quotes, narrating short stories. She also signed up on Fiverr and offered voice-over services. Today, her channel earns ad revenue, and she gets paid ₹500–₹1000 per voiceover gig.

💡 What is Voice Work?

It includes:

- Voice-overs for videos
- Audiobooks
- Narrating explainer videos
- YouTube videos
- Reels or shorts narration

You don't need a studio—just a quiet room and a decent microphone (even a phone can work to start).

🌟 Motivation Boost:

Your voice is powerful. You can use it to educate, entertain, and earn.

🧠 What You Learn from Voice Work:

- Public speaking and clarity
- Confidence and storytelling
- How to engage an audience
- Basic audio editing
- Consistency and discipline

📖 Step-by-Step Guide to Start:

1. Record Your Voice:
2. Use your phone to record yourself reading a short story or a motivational speech.
3. Speak clearly, with emotion and pauses.
4. Use apps like Voice Recorder, Dolby On, or Lexis Audio Editor (Android) to edit.
5. Start a YouTube Channel (Optional):
 - Name it around your topic: “Inspire with Anaya” or “VoiceVibe India”
 - Use Canva to design your thumbnail
 - Add subtitles with tools like CapCut
6. Create Voice Work Samples:
7. Record 2–3 voiceovers (1–2 minutes) and save as MP3 or MP4.
 - A storytelling sample
 - An explainer (e.g., “What is AI?”)
 - A quote narration
8. Upload Gigs on Fiverr or Freelancer:
 - Title: “I will do a female voice-over in English or Hindi”
 - Add your samples
 - Start with ₹300–₹500 per voiceover (1–2 min)
9. Promote Your Service:
 - Share on Instagram or YouTube
 - DM small YouTubers or content creators (many need voice-overs)
10. Learn Basic Audio Editing:
 - Use free tools like Audacity (PC) or BandLab (mobile)
 - Learn to remove noise, adjust volume, and trim clips

✅ Pro Tips:

- Record in a quiet room, preferably under a blanket for better sound
- Drink water before recording
- Smile while speaking—it changes your tone
- Listen to other voice-over artists to learn style and pace
- Keep a script ready—don't try to freestyle in the beginning

Chapter 8: Clicks to Cash – Selling Digital Products

Story:

Zaid, 17, loved designing worksheets for fun—habit trackers, study plans, daily planners. He once uploaded a simple “Study Planner PDF” on Gumroad for ₹99. To his surprise, it sold 3 copies in a day.

Encouraged, he created more planners, aesthetic note pages, and digital stickers for students. Today, his shop has earned him over ₹30,000—and it grows every month, even while he sleeps.

💡 What Are Digital Products?

Digital products are files people can download. You make them once and sell them many times.

Popular digital products:

- Planners and to-do lists
- Budget templates
- Instagram story templates
- Study guides
- Wallpapers
- Notion templates
- E-books

No shipping, no storage—just pure online income.

🌟 Motivation Boost:

Make it once. Sell it forever. That's the power of digital products.

🧠 What You Learn from Selling Digital Products:

- Creativity and value packaging
- Design and layout skills
- Understanding online customers
- Passive income building
- Marketing and presentation

📖 Step-by-Step Guide to Start:

1. Choose a Product Idea:
2. Think about what people need. Examples:
 - “Study Timetable for Students”
 - “Budget Tracker for Teens”
 - “Aesthetic Instagram Highlight Covers”
3. Choose 1 idea and make it useful + pretty.
 - Design the Product:
 - Use Canva to create your product (A4 size for PDFs)
 - Use soft colors, clean fonts, and spacing
 - Export as PDF, PNG, or JPG (depending on the type)
4. Create a Free Account on Selling Platforms:
 - Gumroad.com (very beginner-friendly)
 - Payhip.com
 - Upload your product, set a price (start small like ₹49–₹199), and write a short, clear description.
5. Design a Product Cover and Preview:
6. Use Canva to make:
 - A mockup (showing how the product looks)
 - A product title image (like a digital flyer)
7. Promote on Instagram, Pinterest, or WhatsApp:
 - Post reels showing the planner pages
 - Share on student groups
 - DM friends and ask for feedback or shares
8. Repeat and Grow Your Shop:
9. Add 1–2 new products every week
10. Improve your designs based on feedback
11. Bundle multiple items and offer discounts

✅ Pro Tips:

- Always test the download link before publishing
- Keep your designs simple, clean, and useful
- Look at what others are selling on Gumroad for inspiration (but don't copy)
- Add a "thank you" page in your product with your Instagram handle
- If people love your free stuff, they're more likely to buy your paid ones

Chapter 9: Teen Teacher – Online Tutoring

Story:

Meera, 16, always helped her younger cousins with math. One day, her cousin's mother suggested she try online tutoring to earn some money. Meera was nervous but created a simple Instagram page offering tuition for math and science.

Her first student was a neighbor's child. After a month of good feedback, she started getting referrals. Today, Meera tutors 5 students weekly via Zoom and earns around ₹8000 a month—all from her home.

💡 What is Online Tutoring?

Teaching a subject you know well to students over video calls or chat. It can be school subjects, languages, or even hobbies like music or art.

🌟 Motivation Boost:

If you know it, teach it. Sharing knowledge can be a source of steady income.

🧠 What You Learn from Tutoring:

- Communication and patience
- Confidence in explaining concepts
- Planning lessons and schedules
- Responsibility and reliability
- Time management

📖 Step-by-Step Guide to Start:

1. Pick Your Subject:
2. Choose subjects you are strong at and enjoy teaching.
3. Create a Profile:
4. Use Instagram or WhatsApp Business to promote yourself.
5. Include:
 - Your subjects
 - Your experience (helping friends/family counts)
 - Contact details
6. Set Your Rates:
7. Start with ₹300–₹500 per hour to attract first clients.
8. Find Students:
 - Ask friends and family
 - Join local community groups on WhatsApp or Facebook
 - Post flyers online or on social media
9. Choose a Platform:
10. Use Zoom, Google Meet, or WhatsApp video calls.

Continue

1. Prepare Lesson Plans:
2. Make short notes, practice questions, and simple explanations.
3. Collect Feedback:
4. Ask students or parents for testimonials to build trust.

✓ Pro Tips:

- Be patient and encouraging with your students.
- Use online resources like Khan Academy or BYJU'S for extra help.
- Keep your lessons interactive and fun.
- Always be on time and professional.
- Keep improving your own knowledge regularly.

Chapter 10: Micro Jobs – Quick Online Tasks

Sameer, 14, wanted to earn but didn't have much time because of school. One evening, he discovered websites offering small online tasks like watching ads, filling surveys, and testing apps. He started with surveys and small data labeling jobs.

In a month, Sameer earned around ₹2000 doing micro jobs—just by spending 30 minutes a day. It wasn't huge, but it helped him buy games and treats on his own.

What Are Micro Jobs?

These are small online tasks you can complete quickly for money. Tasks include:

- Taking surveys
- Watching videos or ads
- Testing apps or websites
- Categorizing images
- Data tagging

They pay small amounts per task but can add up.

🌟 Motivation Boost:

Little drops make the ocean. Small tasks, done regularly, can build your online income and skills.

🧠 What You Learn from Micro Jobs:

- Following instructions carefully
- Time management
- Basic online research
- How apps and websites work
- Earning patience and persistence

📖 Step-by-Step Guide to Start:

1. Sign Up on Trusted Sites:
 - Swagbucks.com
 - Toluna.com
 - ySense.com
 - (Some sites may have age restrictions, so get parental permission if needed.)
2. Complete Your Profile:
3. Fill in all details honestly to get better survey matches.
4. Pick Tasks Carefully:
5. Choose surveys or tasks with good reviews and reasonable payout.
6. Track Your Earnings:
7. Keep a record to stay motivated.
8. Withdraw Your Money:
9. Most sites pay via PayPal or gift cards—choose what suits you.
10. Avoid Scams:
11. Never pay to join or share sensitive info like your bank password.

✅ Pro Tips:

- Use a separate email for micro job sites.
- Set a daily limit (e.g., 30 minutes) to balance with studies.
- Check forums like Reddit to find legit sites.
- Be patient—these jobs pay slowly but steadily.
- Use earnings to invest in learning or tools.

Chapter 11: Final Words – Your Online
Journey Begins

Story:

Arjun, 16, started with zero knowledge about online work. He was scared and confused at first. But he took small steps—learning, practicing, and trying different gigs. It wasn't always easy. Sometimes he failed, sometimes he earned little.

Today, Arjun runs three online gigs, helps his family, and saves for college. His biggest lesson? Starting is more important than being perfect.

💡 The Most Important Lesson:

The online world rewards action, not perfection. It's okay to start small, learn on the go, and make mistakes.

✨ Motivation Boost:

Every expert was once a beginner. Your journey to earning online starts with one click, one step, one try.

🧠 What You Take Away:

- Courage to start
- Patience to learn
- Discipline to work regularly
- Willingness to improve
- Confidence to ask for help

📅 Your Next Steps:

1. Choose one method that fits your interest
2. Set a daily or weekly goal
3. Practice your skills every day
4. Seek feedback and improve
5. Be consistent—earnings grow with time

✅ Pro Tips:

- Don't compare your beginning with others' middle.
- Celebrate small wins.
- Keep a journal to track your progress.
- Connect with other teens earning online (social media groups or forums).
- Remember: Online success is a marathon, not a sprint.

Your online money-making journey is ready to begin. Believe in yourself, take that first step, and watch where it takes you.

The End.